Where am I covered?

✓ You are covered in the entire world with the exception of countries for which it is strictly restricted to travel by the Ministry of foreign affairs of your home country or the World Health Organization.

What are my obligations?

You must do the following, or risk voiding the insurance policy or losing benefits:

When taking out the policy:

Answer all questions asked by the insurer accurately, notably in the risk declaration form to enable them to accurately assess the risk they are covering.

Provide all supporting documents requested by the insurer.

Pay the premium (or premium instalment) specified in the policy.

During the term of the policy:

Report any new circumstances that may increase the risks covered or create new ones.

In the event of a claim:

Report all claims that may trigger the cover under the conditions and within the specified time frames and attach all documents useful for assessing the claim.

Report any other cover taken out for the same risks in full or in part with other insurers and any reimbursements you may be entitled to for a claim.

Return the complete claim file and a copy of the policy and/or the supporting documents required and specific to each type of cover.

When and how do I pay?

The premium stated in your insurance certificate can be paid online by bank card when arranging your insurance.

When does the cover start and end?

The term of validity of your policy corresponds to the duration of the services sold by the trip/travel organiser. The Assistance cover takes effect on the scheduled day of departure and expires on the scheduled day of return and cannot exceed 365 days.

How do I cancel the policy?

The policy will automatically end on its expiry.

However, if the policy has a term of more than one month and was taken out remotely (internet or telephone), the insured person retains the right to cancel provided for in Article L112-2-1-II-3 of the French Insurance Code for insurance by distance selling or the right to cancel provided for in Article L112-10 of the same code in the event of multiple insurance policies. The insured person can cancel his/her policy within fourteen (14) calendar days of the date of taking it out.
